

To my young Lady

Words & Music by Edmund Waller &
Gerard Van Woggelum

Musical score for Tenor part of 'To my young Lady'. The score is in 4/4 time with a tempo of 100. It consists of ten staves of music with lyrics underneath. Chord symbols are written above the notes in red. The lyrics are: 'Why came I so un-time-ly forth In to a world which wanting thee Could entertain us with no worth Or shadow of felicity That time should me so far remove From that which I was born to love Yet fairest blossoms do not slight That age which you may know so soon the rosy morn re-signs her light And milder glory to the noon And then what wonders shall you do When dawning beauty warns us so Hope waits upon the flowery prime And summer though it be less gay Yet is not looked on as a time Of declination and decay For with a full hand that does bring All that was promised by the spring'.

Tenor

$\text{♩} = 100$

Why came I so un-time-ly forth In to a world which wanting thee Could entertain us with no worth Or sha dow of fe - li - ci - ty That time should me so far re move From that which I was born to love Yet fai rest blos som do not slight That age which you may know so soon the ro sy morn re - signs her light And mil - der glo - ry to the noon And then what won ders shall you do When daw - ning beau - ty warns us so Hope waits u - pon the flowe - ry prime And sum mer though it be less gay Yet is not looked on as a time Of de - cli - na - tion and de - cay For with a full hand that does bring All that was promised by the spring

Chord symbols: D, F, C, D min, C, D min, B^bmin, C, F, A min, D min, B^bmin, C, D, F, C, D min, B^bmin, C, F, D min, B^bmin, C, F, A min, D min, B^bmin, C, F, A min, D min, B^bmin, C